Tampa Connection Betty Tribble Award 2018

NOMINATION FORM

Tampa Connection began the tradition of recognizing its outstanding alumni with the “Citizen of the Year” award in 2005. In 2009, the award was renamed after Betty Tribble, the award’s first recipient. Betty retired as Vice President of The United Way of Tampa Bay in 2013 and was a long standing board member for Tampa Connection. Betty and all of the past award winners were selected based on their community involvement, continued involvement with Tampa Connection, strong community leadership, and other significant accomplishments.

Please use this form to nominate a Tampa Connection alumni whom you think possesses these same qualifications and has made an impact on our community. Please feel free to communicate with your nominee so that you can include as much relevant information as possible to support your nomination.
